SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, safety deposit box, storage unit, property, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer or any other law enforcement officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
2. The defendant shall not possess or peruse any authentic, altered, or manufactured, in whatever form, material that depicts and/or describes "sexually explicit conduct," as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2) or "child pornography," as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).
3. The defendant's employment must be approved in advance by the probation officer. The defendant may not engage in any paid occupation or volunteer service that exposes him/her, either directly or indirectly, to minors, unless approved in advance by the probation officer.
4. The defendant, who is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, must comply with all requirements of that Act. The defendant shall report the address where the defendant will reside and any subsequent change of residence to the probation officer responsible for supervision, and shall register as a sex offender in any jurisdiction where the person resides, is employed, or is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which convicted if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of the residence. Registration must occur within three business days after sentencing (if the offender did not receive a prison sentence) or within three business days after being released from custody.)
5. The defendant shall actively participate and make reasonable progress in a certified sexual deviancy treatment program, as designated by the U.S. Probation Officer. The sexual deviancy treatment program shall follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The program shall offer individual and group sessions, and appropriate testing, to determine the defendant's patterns of sexual arousal, and to monitor the defendant's progress and compliance with treatment goals and conditions of supervision. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of treatment, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall follow all rules, to include other lifestyle restrictions by the defendant's therapist, and continue with those rules and restrictions as they pertain to avoiding risk situations throughout the course of the defendant's supervision.
7. The defendant shall not go to places nor loiter within 100 feet of an area where minors are known to frequent without the prior approval of the probation officer and the sexual deviancy therapist. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer, and/or be employed, in any capacity, by an organization in an activity, which would place him/her in direct or indirect contact with children under the age of 18.
8. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with the victims of this offense, or any children under the age of 18, unless accompanied and supervised by an adult, who has been approved in advance by the sexual deviancy therapist and the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall immediately report any unauthorized contact with children to the probation officer and sexual deviancy therapist.

DEFENDANT: DAVID NAVARRO
CASE NUMBER: 3:13CR05525BHS-001

9. The defendant's residence shall be pre-approved by the probation office. The defendant shall not reside in direct view of places used primarily by minors, such as school yards, parks, public swimming pools, or recreational centers, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18.
10. The defendant shall consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting ongoing monitoring of his/her computer(s), hardware, and software, and any/and all electronic devices/media. The monitoring may include the installation, at the defendant's expense, of hardware or software systems which allow evaluation of his/her computer use. Monitoring may also include the retrieval and copying of all data from his/her computer(s) or any/and all other electronic devices/media. The defendant shall also comply with the requirements of the U.S. Probation Computer Monitoring Program as directed.
11. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of the defendant's federal income tax returns.
12. *Restitution in the amount of ^{$19,636.96}~~$19,636.96~~ is due immediately. Any unpaid amount is to be paid during the period of supervision in monthly installments of not less than 10% of his or her gross monthly household income. Interest on the restitution shall be waived.
